

A 501(c)(3) non-profit organization serving young women of color

www.alloveme.org

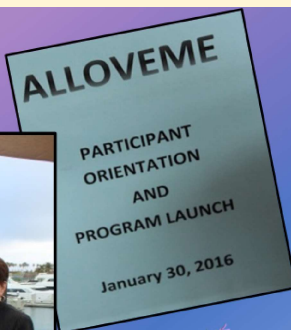

Founded in 2014, ALLOVEME launched its LOVE Program on January 30, 2016 with a mission to recognize, encourage and equip young women of color with the tools they need to live a balanced, healthy, and enriched life building self-respect, self-confidence, self-sufficiency and leadership skills.

SHE BELIEVED

SHE COULD

SO SHE DID

January 2016
L.O.V.E. Program Launch

OUR FIRST LADIES

—  —
CELEBRATING
5 YEARS
— 2016 - 2021 —

THANK YOU 2020 DONORS

- | | |
|--------------|-------------|
| Aaniyah D. | Leila M. |
| Carla B. | LeShan B. |
| Caryl R. | Lori M. |
| Charm J. | Mary C. |
| Claudette M. | Mary E. C. |
| Eliza L. | Megan L. |
| Gretchen K. | Nancelia B. |
| Hilary H. | Rodnette B. |
| Juan B. | Sabeerah N. |
| Lafaye B. | Stacy W. |
| Leige D. | Yasmin D. |

Thank you to all who choose ALLOVEME as your charity of choice on AMAZON SMILE, for contributing to our FaceBook fundraisers and to all everyone who have donated over the years. We appreciate all of you.

In 2020 we transitioned to virtual chat workshops due to COVID-19:

About our Workshop CHATS...

"Thank you...for having a safe space to communicate about issues we are currently facing." Kyndell

The best part was...

"being in a space with other women of color" Regina

"open and honest data and opinions." Pat

"discussing real important topics with phenomenal Black women."
- Kenyatta

"the (guest) speaker." Lena

"all the information and positive energy." Danica

"the open, honest, and authentic conversation." Claudette

Other comments...

"I enjoyed the discussion, and hearing everybody's views and thoughts on what's happening." Lafaye

"I like that the young ladies openly express their thoughts and feelings." LeShan

"I like meeting the young women and seeing how beautiful and strong they are." Leige There's more at www.alloveme.org

SAVE THE DATE
"BLACK LOVE" CHAT
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2021 @ 3PM

L.O.V.E. is Leading Ourselves to Value and Excellence