

LOVE is...Leading Ourselves to Value and Excellence

- Established: May 2014
- LOVE Program Launched: January 2016
- Founder: Lori Minor
- Mission Statement: We recognize, encourage and equip young women of color with the tools they need to live a balanced, healthy, and enriched life through our LOVE Program (Leading Ourselves to Value and Excellence).
- Vision: Our vision is to operate with integrity as a resource for young women of color; to provide young women of color with access to social, educational and financial information and resources; to promote ALLOVEME as an environment of respect providing an opportunity for personal and professional growth through encouragement and edification for all who are associated with the organization.
- Located: Torrance, California
- Services: The ALLOVEME LOVE Program is a series of engaging “conversations” on topics relevant to young women of color. The program is designed to impart life-affirming information and offer tangible resources through group meetings, events, lectures and workshops.

Our ALLOVEME Leaders (mentors) are public and private sector professional women of color who will be on hand to lead our participants through the program. Leaders will mentor participants by offering guidance, encouragement and affirmation sharing their own knowledge and experience.
